

I'm an artist. volunteer. parent. voter.

Lisa Shepherd
ARTIST, DANCER
& CHOREOGRAPHER

Many things define who I am.

I'm an artist who has drawn on my Métis heritage in dance, art, jewelry making and clothing design.

I'm also a mother, mentor and volunteer. One of the most important things I am is a voter. The life of my community is shaped by decisions and the work done by my Mayor, Council and School Trustees. I choose who will represent me and who will shape the community my son will inherit. In some communities fewer than one in four eligible voters takes the time participate in local elections. I make sure my voice is heard by my choices.

Join me and be a voter.

LOCAL ELECTIONS NOVEMBER 19, 2011
