Rock Solid Campaign

B.C. Anti-Bullying Day

Wednesday February 23rd is B.C.'s Annual Pink Shirt Day to raise awareness for anti-bullying. Every year, the Drama Department at NWSS in conjunction with the New Westminister Police Department, presents "Rock Solid" an anti-bullying campaign created in memory of Reena Virk, a teen girl who was murdered by her tormentors. The drama students at New Westminister Secondary write and produce plays to raise awareness on the dangers of bullying. Through performances to school children, they spread a powerful message about the consequences of bullying.

New Westminister Secondary Performing Arts Department Presents

“GREASE”

Feb. 24th – 26th, Massey Theatre

This popular musical is the story of Sandy and Danny, dance contests, graduation, drive-ins and wishing the summer would never end. It’s the story of the Thunderbirds and the Pink Ladies, Greased Lightnin’ Rydell High and the Class of ’59. Most of all, it’s the story of how great it can be to go with someone who’s crazy about you. Even if it’s a while before everyone knows it... even before you’re sure about it yourself. Don’t miss your chance to see Grease. Be there or be square!
