MOTION TO ADOPT:

(a) Closure of New Westminster Cinemas – Councillor Cote

THAT the Youth Advisory Committee request that the Mayor and Council be asked to send a letter to the property owners of the Westminster Centre) expressing the community's disappointment at the impending closure of the New West Cinemas and the effects this will have on diminishing affordable facilities and resources available to youth in the City centre, which:

- keeps youth in the community
- is a safer area for young people to visit
- is within walking distance for most people
- provides a positive alternative to keep youth busy and entertained in the city
- encourages younger individuals to develop confidence skills being able to go to venues unaccompanied or without being driven.
