DELEGATIONS

4. Development Variance Permit 456 (78 Seymour Court)

Murray Hill of 78 Seymour Court rose to answer questions. He advised that the community was canvassed and voiced no objections.

5. Open Delegations

- (a) Mr. David Lundy #107 – 340 9th Street, New Westminster, BC spoke against the proposal to withdraw Braid Street, East Columbia and East Eighth Avenue from the truck route system as they form part of a regional transportation plan. He advised that they are regional truck routes and not city truck routes. He reported that when on Brunette Avenue heading eastbound on Braid Street it is a very dangerous corner. He then spoke in favour of the proposal for the $10.00 minimum wage noting that all people should benefit from the economy.
- (b) Mr. Gavin Palmer, 603 Salter Street, New Westminster, BC gave a slideshow presentation on behalf of the Queensborough Residents Association. He is requesting Council to authorize and fund Development Services to examine the inclusion of duplexes into RQ-1 zoning thereby encouraging the construction of smaller, affordable housing to attract young growing families into the community.
- (c) Ms. Balginder Sond, 328 Fenton Street, New Westminster, BC spoke on behalf of the Queensborough Duplex Committee. She owns an older home in Queensborough and needs to build a new home. She was in attendance to request Council to have the option of building a duplex in an RQ-1 zone. It will not be increasing density or traffic, it will be in tune with other communities and will help to build a better community and better future for children.
- (d) Mr. Bill Thompson, 1182 Sparks Court, New Westminster, BC has been a realtor in Queensborough for 15 years. He advised that so many rental properties are being produced in Queensborough. If this trend continues there will be far too many large houses with rental suites which will have a devastating effect in the community. Building duplexes will allow smaller and younger families to live in more affordable units. This duplex initiative will allow families to stay and live in the community.
- (e) Marcel Marsolair, 722 12th Street, New Westminster, BC supported the minimum wage increase from $8.00 to $10.00. His intent is to get as many cities in the province to adopt the resolution and to send the message to the provincial government that it is time to raise the minimum wage to $10.00.

- (f) Cherene Groundwater, 1931 Dublin Street, New Westminster, BC reported that more people are earning minimum wage salaries and it is time to raise the minimum wage to $10.00. The wage has to be adjusted to today's inflation rates. She requested Council support.
- (g) Carolyn Chalifoux, #15 – 23233 Kanaka Way, Maple Ridge, BC was in attendance as the representative of the New Westminster and District Labour Council. She reported that minimum wage is an issue in the development of homelessness. She would like to put more money in the hands of working people and families. Raising the minimum wage would help low income families fund the three basic necessities:
- Housing
 - Clothing
 - Food.
- (h) Rick Carswell, 309 8th Street, New Westminster, BC rose to speak in favour of the proposed resolution to increase the minimum wage. He urged Council to vote in favour of the resolution.
- (i) Sheila Gorman, 324 Strand Avenue, New Westminster, BC represents the New Westminster and District Labour Council. She commented on the working hours of some minimum wage earners including working a second job. People cannot live on minimum wage. She asked that Council speak in support of the proposed resolution for a $10.00 minimum wage.
- (j) Andy Ross, 824 Edinburgh Street, New Westminster, BC noted it is difficult to quantify the cost of minimum wages. The impact on disposable income has an impact throughout the community, and on health care and social services, etc. He suggested that a wage of $10.00 per hour might make a difference on having adequate food, clothing and housing.
- (k) Matthew Laird, #114 – 2 Renaissance Square, New Westminster, BC, representing New Westminster Environmental Partners will be attending the first Urban Sustainability Forum on June 19, 2007 where environmental and economic impacts will be discussed. He invited everyone to attend and asked that the event be announced on the City Page. Mr. Laird invited those present to participate in the Quarterly Sustainability Challenge. He voiced concern that no public consultation has been scheduled for a green strategy. He asked that Council schedule a public forum on the matter.
