CORPORATION OF THE CITY OF NEW WESTMINSTER

BYLAW NO. 5859, 1989

A Bylaw to impose special development permits application fees and procedures

WHEREAS Section 8 of the New Westminster Redevelopment Act, 1989 repealed the New Westminster Redevelopment Act, 1979;

AND WHEREAS the New Westminster Redevelopment Act, 1989 empowers Council by bylaw to require that an owner of land within the development area obtain a special development permit in place of a development permit under the Municipal Act before beginning development on the land, impose rates or levels of application fees for special development permits and establish procedures respecting the issue of special development permits;

NOW THEREFORE THE CITY COUNCIL of the Corporation of the City of New Westminster ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

1. This Bylaw may be cited for all purposes as "Downtown New Westminster Redevelopment Bylaw No. 5859, 1989".
2. Owners within the development area defined by the New Westminster Redevelopment Act, 1989 are hereby required to obtain a special development permit from the City pursuant to that Act, in place of a development permit under the Municipal Act, before beginning development on that land.

BYLAW NO. 7683, 2014 – SECTION 3 DELETED

4. The procedures respecting the issue of special development permits are:

the applicant for a special development permit making application to the City Planner in the form of Schedule "B" which is attached to and forms part of this bylaw;

- (a) the applicant providing the City with all documentation and information required by the New Westminster Redevelopment Act, 1989 and all other applicable enactments; and
- (b) if the City Planner issues the special development permit being applied for, he or she shall issue it in the form of Schedule "C" which is attached to and forms part of this bylaw.

Bylaw No. 6396, 1997

- (c) where an applicant has not been issued a special development permit within one year of the date of application, the application is deemed to have expired and requires reapplication.
- 5. Council shall by resolution appoint three persons to serve as a design review panel for the period ending on November 30, 1989 and annually thereafter.

Corporation of the City of New Westminster

Special Development Permit

Number _____

1. This Special Development Permit is issued subject to compliance with all the bylaws of the City and the New Westminster Redevelopment Act, 1989.
2. This Special Development Permit applies to, and only to, those lands within the City described below, and any or all building, structures and other development thereon:

Legal Description: _____

3. The lands described herein shall be developed strictly in accordance with the terms and conditions and provisions of this Permit and any plans and specifications attached to this Permit shall form a part thereof.
4. If the holder of this Permit does not commence the development permitted by this Permit within _____ months of the date of this Permit, this Permit shall lapse.
5. This Permit is not a Building Permit.
6. As a condition of this issuance of this Permit, the Corporation of the City of New Westminster is holding the security set out below in order to provide for the completion of onsite and offsite works, services and landscaping in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Permit. Interest earned on any security shall become part of the security. The security shall be returned to the holder of this Permit upon completion of the onsite and offsite works, services and landscaping as specified in this permit or retained by the City on default, as the case may be. If the holder of this Permit fails to carry out the development hereby authorized according to the terms and conditions of this Permit within the time provided, the City may use the security to carry out the work by its servants, agents or contractors, and any surplus shall be paid to the holder of this Permit.
