

HAIR APPARENT:

A Hairy History of New Westminster

April 23 - June 21, 2015

Opening Reception: Thursday, April 23 from 6:00 - 8:00 pm
New Westminster Museum at Anvil Centre (777 Columbia St.)

This spring New Westminster Museum spotlights the City's barbershops, salons and hairstyles of yesteryear, as well as the diversity of contemporary hairdressing in the city. Join us for a series of associated programs that will help bring this fascinating history to life! Full descriptions at www.anvilcentre.com. Contact us at 604.527.4640 or museum@newwestcity.ca for more information or to register.

Museum Book Club (16+ years)
Anvil Centre Program Room 311
Saturday, 10:30 - 11:30 am
April 25
Kabul Beauty School by Deborah Rodriguez
Registration Required: Admission by Donation

A Walking Tour of Twelfth Street
(All Ages)
Meet at 12th St. & 6th Ave. (NE corner)
Saturday, 10:00 - 11:30 am
May 2
Registration Required: Free 140567

Hair Apparent: Unconventional
Hair Stories (16+ years)
Anvil Centre Program Room 311
Thursday, 7:00 - 8:00 pm
May 14 140563
Registration Required: Admission by Donation

A Victorian Man's Life (5 - 7 years)
Anvil Centre Program Room 311
Saturday, 10:00 am - 12:00 pm
May 30
Registration Fee: $13.25 140879

Hair Today, Gone Tomorrow:
A History of Hair (All Ages)
Join popular fashion historian Ivan Sayers for a presentation about hairstyles from the 1850s to the 1970s.
Anvil Centre Studio 411
Saturday, 2:00 - 3:00 pm
June 13
Registration Fee: $10.00 140861