

THE HEAT IS ON SCAVENGER HUNT

1. By 2030, British Columbia aims to reduce carbon emissions by what percentage?
2. What does Edna Anderson recall as being used for insulation in her small two-room house?
3. What were the insulated homes excavated out of the ground and used by Stó:lō and Musqueam peoples called?
4. What is hog fuel?
5. How do trees help to conserve energy?
6. What is New Westminister's "Tree Canopy Goal"?
7. What was deemed a superior method for heating one's home? Was this method environmentally-friendly?
8. What are three (3) ways that we can cut down on carbon emissions?
9. What modern heating and cooling system was installed in Irving House in 2013?
10. Extreme heat can be just as dangerous as the extreme cold. Name three (3) resources that are available during heatwaves here in New Westminister.