ORGANIZATIONAL PROFILE

The City of New Westminster (the City) is a central hub in the Metro Vancouver area. New Westminster, British Columbia, is geographically, economically, and technologically well situated in the centre of Metro Vancouver. It is a city rich in history with a viable and thriving economy, a population representative of the diversity of the region, and is staffed by talented and dedicated employees who work together to achieve its strategic vision.

ABOUT THE ROLE

Reporting directly to the Mayor, the new Intergovernmental & Community Relations Manager will play a key role for the City by establishing and maintaining relationships with a diverse range of partners including those in local, provincial, and federal government, local businesses, business and industry associations, educational institutions, City departments, and importantly, local residents, to support and advance the City's strategic interests. The management and coordination of sponsorships and grants will also be a responsibility for this role.

QUALIFICATIONS

This is an excellent opportunity for a politically savvy, highly relational, civic and community minded individual with government relations experience from either the public or private sector. Knowledge and understanding of the issues and priorities of the region would be ideal, as would experience in fundraising and/or sponsorship management.

APPLICATION DETAILS

The City of New Westminster is committed to employment equity. They welcome diversity and encourage applications from all qualified individuals.

Harbour West Consulting believes equity, diversity and inclusion are essential for the organizations we serve to achieve the business goals they strive for. We believe in equal pay for equal work; in finding the best candidates based on skill and competence regardless of gender, ethnicity, age, sexual orientation, disability, religion, political belief, marital or family status, and/or Indigenous status. We strive to ensure the recruitment process unfolds in a fair, transparent, timely and open manner to include individuals previously underrepresented or discouraged from participating.
