- Ability to maintain records using permitting and file management methods and tools (EDMS and Tempest) applicable to municipal planning work.
- Skill in the use of MS Office software (MS Word, MS Excel, MS PowerPoint)
- Strong written and verbal communication as well as listening skills.
- Ability to work independently with minimal supervision, and effectively as part of an integrated team.
- Strong organizational skills and the ability to manage multiple tasks in a fast-paced environment.

Apply by sending your cover letter and resume in one document quoting the competition number, by December 02, 2022 to the Human Resources Department, City of New Westminster, 511 Royal Avenue, New Westminster, BC, V3L 1H9, e-mail to hr@newwestcity.ca using the following format in the subject line: LAST NAME First Name #22-186

To support a workforce that reflects the diversity of our community; women, Indigenous Peoples, racialized individuals, persons of diverse sexual orientation, gender identity or expression (LGBTQ2S+), persons with disabilities, and others who may contribute to diversity of our workforce, are encouraged to express their interest.

New Westminster is on the unceded and unsurrendered land of the Halq'eméylem-speaking peoples. It is acknowledged by the City that colonialism has made invisible their histories and connections to the land. We are learning and building relationships with the people whose lands we are on.

We thank all applicants for their interest and advise that only those selected for an interview will be contacted.

This position is only open to those legally entitled to work in Canada.
