

Emergency Management Office Course Descriptions

- Personal Emergency Preparedness Presentation: (this presentation can be tailored to your needs)

This presentation will give you the basic information you need to prepare yourself, your family and pets and your home. We will cover the hazards that exist in the local area and what to do before and after a disaster or emergency.

  - Learn what type of emergency supplies you should have stored.
  - Learn about constructing a family emergency plan
  - How can your home be prepared for an emergency or disaster (i.e. earthquake)
  - Why I need an out of area contact?
  - Who is coming to help?
  - How New Westminister is prepared.
  - And more.

- Pet Preparedness Presentation:

How to prepare your pet's emergency kit, what type of items it should include and how you can include our pets into our family's emergency preparedness plan.

- Emergency Preparedness for Seniors/ People with Disabilities:

This is a combined version of the personal emergency preparedness presentation with a few more tips and information for seniors and or those with disabilities.

- Emergency Preparedness Display Booth:

Have an upcoming fair, or event. The Emergency Preparedness Display Booth comes with emergency preparedness brochures, giveaways and is staffed by knowledgeable volunteers and staff to answer any questions regarding preparing for an emergency or disaster, volunteering with the Emergency Management Office and more.

- Office Display Starter Kit:

Do you want to ensure staff and employees are prepared in an emergency or disaster? Why not start your own preparedness display. The New Westminister Emergency Management Office can ensure that you have all the information needed in order to start your own display, from how to get preparedness brochures to the type of information you may want to make available to staff.

**Upon receipt of the presentation request form, the Emergency Management Office will contact you and discuss the type of presentation you require in more detail. Some questions the office will have are regarding the availability of audio visual equipment i.e. TV, VCR, DVD player.**
